Dated at Tombstone, A. T., February 8, 1896.

Notice of Forfeiture.

T. B. A. BACKARD, H. HEIRS OR

assignee.

You are hereby notified by the undersigned, your co-owner in the Northern Bell mine, situated in the Turquoise mining district in the county of Cochise, Territory of Arizona, that they have expended the sum of three hundred dollars in the performance of the annual work for the years 1893, 1894 and 1895, required by the laws of Congress to be annually expended upon said claim to hold the same.

You, your heirs or assigns have failed to contribute your portion of said expenditures required by section 2344 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, to be made upon said claim for the years of 1893, 1894 and 1895. The sum due from you to the undersigned your co-owner in said mining claim, as your proportion of the money expended by him upon said claim as above set forth is one hundred and fifty dollars ($150) and the cost of this advertisement for which you are delinquent at the date of this notice.

You, your heirs and assigns, are hereby notified that you should fail or refuse to contribute your proportion of the above expenditure, to-wit: $150 and cost of this advertisement, within thirty days after the publication of this notice at least once a week for ninety days in a newspaper, your interest in the Northern Bell mine will be the property of your co-owner the undersigned, who resides in the county of Cochise, Arizona Territory.

A SAD MISNOMER.

The Term "Old Maid" is Almost Always

Misapplied.

I lately heard an amusing new definition to the term "old maid," which was held to apply, not to elderly spinsters in general, but only to such as had never had a chance of changing their condition; those who "would not when they could," or whose course of true love has run rough, receiving the more respectful title of "maiden ladies." The idea emanates from a masculine brain, but the difficulty of ascertaining which designation applies in individual cases is a problem which the superior male intellect has not condescended to solve, says the Ladies' Pictorial.

Are old maids under this definition to be expected to wear some particular form of cap, or have their hat cut in a special fashion, or add the letters

"O. M." to their visiting cards? I am convinced that there are very few women indeed whose experience has failed to include a love affair of some kind, and of these few only a small minority would acknowledge the fact.

A more correct idea of the term, it seems to me, and one which takes away its old-fashioned sting, is that it describes a certain type of woman irrespective of her condition in life. The prim, narrow-minded person who fuses over trifles, who would leave matters of the most paramount duty or engrossing interest in order to put tidy a drawer or sew on a button; who goes all her life in fear of Mrs. Grundy, and would leave any kind action undone, or kind word unsaid, if it ran the slightest risk of offending that potentate, would be old-maidish in spite of any number of matrimonial ventures; while, on the other hand, there are plenty of liberal-minded, youthful-hearted old misses to whom the epithet is so obviously unsuitable that no one thinks of applying it.

The Hue of Water.

It is now admitted that the inherent hue of water is blue. Even distilled water has been proved to be exactly of the same tint as a solution of Prussian blue. This is corroborated by the fact that the purer the water is in nature the bluer is its hue.

Zola's most successful book has been "The Dowry," which though only a year or two old, has been sold to the extent of one hundred and seventy-six thousand copies. Its next most popular novel has been "Nana," the sale of which has reached one hundred and sixty-six thousand copies.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS: Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue, turnors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Swayne's Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne and Son, Philadelphia.

Pursued by a Demon.

How many suicides, think you, reader, have been committed by persons driven distraught and hunted to their doom by the demon of chronic ill health? Countless. For instance, we know, do we not, that hypochondria-sis is a monomania—a sort of minor madness produced by chronic dyspepsia? Again, insomnia, or sleeplessness, often a result of the same cause, culminates in a derangement of the reasoning faculties. It is, therefore, of momentous consequence to prevent the arrival of disease at its chronic phase, when it daily and nightly torments the sufferer to a dangerously uncertain goal. No medicine known to science, as a means of arresting the malady to which it is adapted, exists equal to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Among these complaints are chronic indigestion and insomnia, kidney and rheumatic ailments, constipation and liver troubles. Appetite is improved by the Bitters, the blood purified, and bodily substance and vigor increased by it.

FRANKFORT, Ky.—The ballot for

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

NEWS BY WIRE.

NEW YORK—A storm of wind and rain which began last night is more severe. The wind is blowing 62 miles an hour. People were literally lifted from their feet by the gale. In several instances heavily loaded trucks were overturned. Telegraphic communication is interrupted in every direction. When restored there will probably be many stories of wreck.

CINCINNATI—All day the city has been nervously excited over developments of the now famous story of the mysterious death of Pearl Bryan, of Greencastle, Ind., a farmer's daughter. Each culprit appears to be trying to shield himself as an accidental accomplice and make the other the real criminal. So far it is known that Pearl Bryan was about to become a mother and desirous of hiding her shame left Greencastle, Ind. Tuesday January 18 ostensibly to visit Mrs.
Fisher in Indianapolis; that William Wood saw her to the train; she came directly to Cincinnati; tried to see Scott Jackson at the Dental college that night but could not do so—he registered at the Indiana house as Mabel Stanley of this city and was assigned to a room. After that stories about her do not agree.

Visiting a roommate of Scott Jackson with whom she was arrested last night charged with the murder says that Jackson saw Miss Bryan on Wednesday that he went about the city with her; finally on Friday completed the crime of murder cutting off the girl's head and bringing it to Cincinnati in her own valise which he kept until Monday when he cast the head into a sewer and threw her clothing into the Ohio river.

United States senator resulted: Hunter 67; Blackburn 62; Carlisle 2; Bate 1; McCreary 4; necessary for choice 69.

OAKLAND.—Soon after noon today a new frame building being erected at the corner of 22nd street and San Pedro Avenue blew down in a moderately high wind prevailing at the time. The building it is supposed had not been properly secured by the carpenters. Two men and two children are killed.

WASHINGTON.—The Canton anti-slavery bill has passed the Senate.

The Catron bill to prohibit prize fighting on federal territory will probably be sent to the President tomorrow or next day. It is considered almost certain that it will be signed promptly thus making it a law operative immediately. Then the whole government authority judicial and if necessary military will be invoked to stop the prize fights.
